Universal Register,
O R,
AMERICAN AND BRITISH
K A L E N D A R,
FOR THE YEAR
1 7 7 5.

N E W - Y O R K :

PRINTED BY H. GAINE, BOOKSELLER
AND STATIONER,

TO THE INHABITANTS of AMERICA.

THIS Work being the first of its Kind that ever appear'd in this Province, it may possibly be expected that the Compiler shou'd usher it into the World with a Preface, in which it's great Utility, and the Skill and Labour of the Editor, ought, according to Custom, to be largely expatiated upon : But, however willing he may be to procure a sufficient Sale to compensate him for his Trouble and Expence, however desirous to be thought useful in his Station, he declines attaining those Advantages by improper Means, nor would he risque the Favour of the Public by an Attempt to prejudice their Judgment.

AT this Time, when all America is united in one great political Compact, for their common Security, it is certainly necessary that we shou'd be furnish'd with as intimate a Knowledge as can be obtain'd of every Province : This Idea struck the Compiler of the following Lists, but rather too late to give him an Opportunity of being as minute, and perhaps as correct, as he cou'd have wish'd.---The Public, ever indulgent to a new Attempt, will make Allowances for the Difficulties that naturally attend a first Undertaking, and candidly suppose that want of Materials and proper Information, almost impossible to be collected in so short a Time, but not of Attention or Industry, has confin'd him to a narrower Compass than he intended, and subjected him to the Admission of some Inaccuracies which cou'd not be avoided.

It has, however, the Merit of containing more useful Matter than the Court Kalendar ; and, the Compiler flatters himself, as much as either of the American Registers already publish'd in two Provinces : He has selected every Thing from the BRITISH and IRISH Lists worthy of Notice, and, besides the General Establishment of America, the Public is presented with an Account of every Province from WEST FLORIDA to QUEBEC inclusive.

HE takes this Opportunity to intreat the Assistance of Gentlemen, properly inform'd, in the different Colonies, for his next Years Compilation, which he is ambitious to make as complete and correct as possible ; their Favours, with whatever Remarks or Censures they may think proper to make on this first Attempt, will be gratefully received, and thankfully attended to.

HAVING now said a little in favour of the UNIVERSAL AMERICAN REGISTER, and at the same Time shewn a Disposition to acknowledge it's Defects, he, in confidence that it will at least meet with an unprejudic'd Reception, conducts it to the impartial Bar of the Public,

“ With all it's Imperfections on it's Head.”

By the Treaty of Union, ratified and confirmed as fundamental and unalterable by the Parliament of both Kingdoms, Art. xxiii. "All Peers of Scotland, and their Successors to their Honours and Dignities, are PEERS OF GREAT-BRITAIN, and have Rank and Precedency next, and immediately after, the Peers of the like Orders and Degrees in England at the Time of the Union, May 1, 1707, and before all Peers of Great-Britain, of the like Orders and Degrees, created after the Union."

The Precedency among Men being known, that due to Women is easily demonstrated, observing that Women before Marriage have Precedency by their Father, with this Difference between them and the Male Children, that the same Precedency is due to all the Daughters that belongs to the eldest, which is not so among the Sons; and the Reason of this Disparity seems to be that Daughters succeed equally, whereas the eldest Son excludes all the others. By Marriage a Woman participates of her Husband's Dignities, but none of the Wife's Dignities can come by Marriage to the Husband, but are to descend to her next Heir. If a Woman have Precedency by Creation or Birth, she retains the same though she marry an Inferiour ; but if a Woman nobly born, though a Duke's Daughter, marry an Inferiour, she has no Precedency but from her Husband. A Woman privileged by Marriage with one of noble Degree, retains the Privilege derived from her Husband, though he should be degraded by Forfeiture, &c. for Crimes are personal. The Wife of the eldest Son of any Degree takes Place of the Daughters of the same Degree.

PRECEDENCY among WOMEN.

A GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF AMERICA.

THIS great Western Continent, frequently denominated the New World, extends from the 80th Degree North to the 56th of South Latitude; and, where it's Breadth is known, from the 56th to the 136th Degree of W. Long. from London, stretching from between 8 and 9000 Miles in Length, and in it's greatest Breadth 3690. It sees both Hemispheres, has two Summers and a double Winter, and enjoys all the Variety of Climates which the Earth affords. It is wash'd by the two great Oceans; to the Eastward it has the Atlantic, which divides it from Europe and Africa; to the West the Pacific, or great South Sea, by which it is separated from Asia: By these Seas it may, and does carry a direct Commerce with the other three Parts of the World.

This great Continent is divided into two Parts, one on the North, the other on the South, which are joined by the Kingdom of Mexico, forming a Sort of Isthmus 1500 Miles long, and in one Part, at Darien, so extremely narrow, as to make the Communication between the two Oceans by no Means difficult, being only 60 Miles. In the great Gulph which is form'd between the Isthmus and the northern and southern grand Divisions of this continent, lie an infinite Multitude of Islands, many of them large, most of them fertile, and denominated the West-Indies, in contradiction to the Countries and Islands of Asia, beyond the cape of Good Hope, which are call'd the East Indies. The Limits to which we are confined will not admit of a particular Description of all the countries contained in this vast continent; the colonies and Provinces of Great-Britain, forming what may be truly call'd
THE BRITISH EMPIRE IN AMERICA.

Except the Collectors and Comptrollers of his Majesty's Customs, the Proprietor has the sole Appointment of all Officers civil and military in the Province; he has also the Presentation to every Parish of the established Church: Instead of the King's, all Proceedings in the Courts are carried on in his Name; the Writs run in this Form, "Henry Harford, Lord" and absolute Proprietary of the Provinces of Maryland and Avalon, &c. &c. To our Sheriff, &c. &c. "In the ---- Year of his Lordship's Dominion." In the Preamble to Acts of Assembly, the Stile is, "We" his Lordship's Tenants, &c. The King's Assent is not necessary to their Laws; but they may be dissented to by the Proprietor, within a certain Time. In short, the Power of the Proprietor of Maryland, is equal to that of any Sovereign Prince, who is not despotic in his Dominions.

The Province contains 14 Counties and 44 Parishes. Rates of Coins and Course of Exchange, the same as in Pennsylvania.

New-York.

Henry Hudson, an Englishman, in the Year 1608, under a Commission from his Master King James I. discovered Long-Island, Manhattans (since called New-York) and the River which bears his Name; and afterwards sold the Country or rather his Right, to the Dutch. Four Years after the States-General granted a Patent to sundry Merchants for an exclusive Trade on the North River, who in 1614 built a Fort on the West Side near Albany: In the same Year Capt. Argensoll under Sir Thomas Dale, Governor of Virginia visited the Dutch on Hudson's-River, who being unable to resist him, prudently submitted, for the present, to the King of England, and under Obedience to the Governor of Virginia. The Year following they erected a Fort on the South West Point of Island Manhattans. Determined upon the Settlement of a Colony, the States General in 1624 granted the Country to the West-India Company and in the Year 1629, Wouter Van Twiller arrived at Fort-Amsterdam, now New-York, took upon himself the Government.

August 27th, 1664, Governor Stuyvesant rendered the Colony to Col. Nicolls, who had arrived in the Bay a few Days before, with three or four Ships and about 300 Soldiers, having a Commission from King Charles 2d, to reduce the Place, which then was called New-Amsterdam, but was changed to New-York, as was Fort-Orange to Albany, in Honour of his Royal Highness James Duke of York and Albany. Very few of the Inhabitants thought proper to remove out of the Country; and their numerous Descendants for Loyalty to the present reigning Family, and a pure Attachment to the Protestant Religion, are perhaps exceeded by none of his Majesty's Subjects.

The English kept peaceable Possession of the Country until the Year 1673, when the Dutch, with whom we were then at War, sent a small Squadron, which arrived at Staten-Island on the 10th of July; John Manning, a Captain of an Independent Company, who had at that Time the Command of the Fort, sent a Messenger down to the Commodore, and treacherously made his Terms with him: On the same Day the Ships came up, moor'd under the Fort, landed their Men, and entered the Garrison, without giving or receiving Shot. All the Magistrates and Constables from East-Jersey, Lond-Island, Æsopus and Albany, were summoned to New-York; and the major part of them swore Allegiance to the States General and the Prince of Orange. The Conquerors, however, did not enjoy the Fruits of their success long, for on the 9th of February the Year following, a Treaty of Peace between England and Holland, was sign'd at Westminster; by the 6th Article of which, this Province was restor'd to the English,---under whose Dominion it has since continued.

Mr. Smith in his History of New-York, published in the Year 1757, computes the Number of Souls in this Colony to be about 100,000, but as

17 Years have elapsed since that Time, and as besides the natural Increase we have had vast Emi-grations from Ireland, Scotland, and other Countries, we may now reasonably conclude there are no less than 160,000 Inhabitants, of whom about 30,000 are, or ought to be, inroll'd in the Militia

CORPORATION for the Relief of the Widows and Children of Clergymen in the Communion of the Church of England, in America.

THIS charitable Corporation was instituted in the Year 1769, by three different Charters granted by the Governors of New-York, New-Jersey, and Pennsylvania, whereby the Episcopal Clergy in those three Provinces and a Number of the most respectable Laity, are made a Body corporate, in which ever of these Provinces they may have Occasion to meet and transact Business. The Design of their Institution is to make a Provision for the Widows and Children of the Episcopal Clergy in those Provinces; but they may choose Clergymen of other Provinces, Members of their Corporation and the Widows and Children of such Clergymen, if they have been Subscribers, agreeable to the fundamental Laws, will be entitled to the Benefit of the Charity. But it seems to be their present Intention, to confine themselves to the Provinces in which they are incorporated, lest their Affairs should become too difficult to manage. Their first Meeting was at Philadelphia in October 1769; the 2d at New-York in October 1770, the 3d in October 1771; and so by a constant Rotation.

A State of their Accounts is to be annually transmitted to the Archbishops of Canterbury and York, and the Bishop of London.

This Country, after changing Masters frequently, from one private Proprietor to another, and from the French to the English, was confirm'd to England at the Treaty of Utrecht. Little or no Progress was made in the Settlement until 1749, when 3000 Families were transported thither at the Expence of Government. They erected a Town call'd HALIFAX, upon Chebucto Bay, a very commodious and safe Harbour,---the Station where the British Fleet upon the American Service chiefly resorted to. Three Regiments are commonly kept here, to protect the Inhabitants from the Indians, whose Resentment, probably inflam'd by the French, has been found implacable. The Number of Inhabitants is said to be 15 or 16,000, who are supported by some Trade in Furs and Naval Stores, and their Fishery. Agriculture has hitherto made little Progress in this Country, which is almost a continued Forest. The Timber is proper for Ship-building, and produces Pitch and Tar. Besides Halifax the Capital, which is fortified, this Province has the Towns of Annapolis Royal and St. Johns ;---their Import from Great-Britain is to the Amount of £. 26,000.

The Coasts of this Island are extremely subject to Fogs; the Soil, at least in those Parts with which we are acquainted, is rocky and barren, the Cold being long and severe, and the Summer Heat, tho' violent, not warming it enough to produce any Thing valuable, we are not likely to reap any great Advantage from the Culture of this Island; it is, however, water'd by several good Rivers, and hath some large and good Harbours: But what at present it is chiefly valuable for, is the great Fishery of Cod carried on upon those Shoals which are call'd the Banks of Newfoundland: Great-Britain and North-America, annually employ 3000 Sail of small Craft in this Fishery; on board which, and on Shore to cure and pack the Fish, are employed above 12,000 Hands. This is a valuable Branch of Trade to the Merchant, a Source of Livelyhood to Thousands, and an excellent Nursery to the Royal Navy; it increases the National Stock, £. 300,000 per Annum, in Gold and Silver, return'd for the Cod we sell to the North, to Spain, Portugal, Italy, and the Levant.

 “ foundland, are, during his Majesty’s Pleasure, “ annex’d to, and made Part and Parcel of the “ Province of Quebec.”

This extensive Province was reduced by the British Arms under General Amherst, on the 8th of September 1760.---By the Capitulation agreed upon between the English General and the Marquis De Vaudreuil, who commanded for his most Christian Majesty, The free Exercise of the Roman Catholic Religion was granted to the Inhabitants of Canada, also an Enjoyment of all the Privileges of Trade in common with his Majesty's other Subjects.

AIR and CLIMATE, SOIL, PRODUCE, METALS, MINERALS, and RIVERS.

The Winter in this Country is very severe, though the Air is generally clear ; but, like most of the American Tracts that do not lie too far to the Northward, the Summers are very hot, and exceeding pleasant.

Tho' the Climate be cold, and the Winter long and tedious, the Soil is in general very good, and in many Parts extremely fertile in Wheat, Barley, Rye and other Grains, Fruits and Vegetables ; Tobacco in particular, thrives well, and is pretty much cultivated. The Isle of Orleans near the Metropolis, and the Lands upon St. Laurence and other Rivers, are remarkable for the richness of their Soil : The Meadow Grounds are well watered, yield excellent Grass, and breed vast Numbers of great and small Cattle. Near Quebec is a fine Lead Mine, and in some of the Mountains, we are told, Silver has been found. This Country also abounds with Coals. The Rivers are numerous, and many of them large, bold and deep ; they are most of them swallow'd up by the River St. Laurence, which issuing from the Lake Ontario, and taking its Course N. E. washes Montreal, where it receives the Outtauais, and forms many fertile Islands ; continuing the same Course, it meets the Tide 400 Miles from the Sea, where it is navigable for large Vessels, and below Quebec, 320 Miles from its Mouth, it becomes broad, and so deep, that Ships of the Line contributed, in the last War, to reduce that Capital.

City of Qubec.

On the 13th of September 1759, General Wolfe, at the Head of an intrepid handful of British Troops, after combating every Difficulty of Art and Nature, with the most undaunted Resolution, and the calmest Perseverance, defeated the French Army commanded by the Marquis De Montcalm, on the Heights near Quebec ; and by that memorable Action, in which the English Forces had 57 Men killed and 607 wounded, and the French 1500 killed, wounded and Prisoners, paved the Way for the Reduction of the City, which surrender'd on the 18th to Admiral Sanders and Brigadier Townshend.

The Importance of this Conquest to Great-Britain, was greatly lessen'd by the heavy Loss they sustain'd in the Death of their brave, their gallant Commander ; who possess'd every Qualification necessary to form the General : To a quick Conception, a steady Courage, an unwearied Perseverance, he added a Nobleness of Sentiment, and such superior Abilities that no Impediment cou'd prevent the Execution of a Plan he had once form'd-----Like another Epaminondas, Death snatch'd him from the Arms of Victory.

The American BILL of RIGHTS.

THE inhabitants of the English colonies in North-America, by the immutable laws of nature, the principles of the English constitution, and the several charters or compacts, have the following RIGHTS.---

Resolved, N. C. D. 1. That they are entitled to life, liberty and property; and they have never ceded to any sovereign power whatever, a right to dispose of either without their consent.

Resolved, N. C. D. 2. That our ancestors, who first settled these colonies, were at the time of their emigration from the mother country, entitled to all the rights, liberties, and immunities of free and natural born subjects within the realm of England.

Resolved, N. C. D. 3. That by such emigration they by no means forfeited, surrendered, or lost any of those rights, but that they were, and their descendants now are, entitled to the exercise and enjoyment of all such of them as their local and other circumstances enable them to exercise and enjoy.

Resolved, 4. That the foundation of English liberty and of all free government, is a right in the people to participate in their legislative council: and as the English colonists are not represented, and from their local and other circumstances cannot properly be represented in the British parliament, they are entitled to a free and exclusive power of legislation in their several provincial Legislatures, where their right of representation can alone be preserved, in all cases of taxation and internal polity, subject only to the negative of their sovereign, in such manner as has been heretofore used and accustomed : But from the necessity of the case, and a regard to the mutual interests of both countries, we cheerfully consent to the operation of such acts of the British parliament, as are bona fide restrained to the regulation of our external commerce, for the purpose of securing the commercial advantages of the whole empire to the mother country, and the commercial benefits of its respective members, excluding every idea of taxation internal or external, for raising a revenue on the subjects in America without their consent.

Resolved, N. C. D. 5. That the respective colonies are entitled to the common law of England, and more especially to the great and inestimable privilege of being tried by their peers of the vicinage, according to the course of that law.

Resolved, 6. That they are entitled to the benefit of such of the English statutes, as existed at the time of their colonization ; and which they have, by experience, respectively found to be applicable to their several local and other circumstances.

Resolved, N. C. D. 7. That these, his Majesty's colonies, are likewise entitled to all the immunities and privileges granted and confirmed to them by royal charters, or secured by their several codes of provincial laws.

Resolved, N. C. D. 8. That they have a right peaceably to assemble, consider of their grievances, and petition the King ; and that all prosecutions, prohibitory proclamations and commitments for the same, are illegal.

Resolved, N. C. D. 9. That the keeping a standing army in these colonies, in times of peace, without the consent of the legislature of that colony in which such army is kept, is against law.

Resolved, N. C. D. 10. It is indispensibly necessary to good government, and rendered essential by the English constitution, that the constituent branches of the legislature be independent of each other; that, therefore, the exercise of legislative power in several colonies, by a council appointed, during pleasure, by the crown, is unconstitutional, dangerous, and destructive to the freedom of American legislation.

All and each of which, the aforesaid deputies in behalf of themselves, and their constituents, do claim, demand, and insist on, as their indubitable rights and liberties; which cannot be legally taken from them, altered or abridged by any power whatever, without their own consent, by their representatives in their several provincial legislatures.

A S S O C I A T I O N OF THE CONTINENTAL CONGRESS.

First. THAT from and after the first day of December next, we will not import into British America, from Great-Britain or Ireland, any goods, wares or merchandize whatsoever, or from any other place any such goods, wares or merchandize, as shall have been exported from Great-Britain or Ireland; nor will we, after that day, import any East-India tea from any part of the world; nor any molasses, syrups, paneles, coffee or pimento, from the British plantations or from Dominica; nor wines from Madeira, or the Western Islands; nor foreign indigo.

Second. THAT we will neither import nor purchase any slave imported after the first day of December next; after which time, we will wholly discontinue the slave trade, and will neither be concerned in it ourselves, nor will we hire our vessels, nor sell our commodities or manufactures to those who are concerned in it.

Third. As a non-consumption agreement, strictly adhered to, will be an effectual security for the observation of the non-importation, we, as above, solemnly agree and associate, that from this day, we will not purchase or use any tea imported on account of the East-India company, or any on which a duty hath been or shall be paid ; and from and after the 1st day of March next, we will not purchase or use any East-India tea whatever, nor will we, nor shall any person for or under us, purchase or use any of those goods, wares or merchandize, we have agreed not to import, which we shall know, or have cause to suspect, were imported after the first day of December, except such as come under the rules and directions of the tenth article hereafter mentioned.

Fourth. THE earnest desire we have not to injure our fellow-subjects in Great-Britain, Ireland, or the West-Indies, induces us to suspend a non-exportation until the 10th day of September, 1775 ; at which time, if the said acts and parts of acts of the British parliament herein after mentioned, are not repealed, we will not, directly or indirectly, export any merchandize or commodity whatsoever, to Great-Britain, Ireland, or the West-Indies, except rice to Europe.

Fifth. SUCH as are merchants, and use the British and Irish trade, will give orders, as soon as possible, to their factors, agents and correspondents, in Great-Britain and Ireland, not to ship any goods to them, on any pretence whatsoever, as they cannot be received in America ; and if any merchant, residing in Great-Britain or Ireland, shall directly or indirectly, ship any goods, wares or merchandize, for America, in order to break the said non-importation agreement, or in any manner contravene the same, on such unworthy conduct being well attested, it ought to be made publick ; and, on the same being so done, we will not from thenceforth have any commercial connexion with such merchant.

Sixth. THAT such as are owners of vessels will give positive orders to their captains, or masters, not to receive on board their vessels any goods prohibited by the said non-importation agreement, on pain of immediate dismissal from their service.

Seventh. WE will use our utmost endeavours to improve the breed of sheep and increase their number to the greatest extent, and to that end, we will kill them as sparingly as may be, especially those of the most profitable kind ; nor will we export any to the West-Indies or elsewhere ; and those of us who are or may become overstocked with, or can conveniently spare any sheep, will dispose of them to our neighbours, especially to the poorer sort, on moderate terms.

Eighth. THAT we will in our several stations encourage frugality, oeconomy, and industry ; and promote agriculture, arts, and the manufactures of this country, especially that of wool ; and will discountenance and discourage every species of extravagance and dissipation, especially all horse-racing, and all kinds of gaming, cock fighting, exhibitions of shews, plays, and other expensive diversions and entertainments. And on the death of any relation or friend, none of us, or any of our families will go into any further mourning-dress, than a black crape or ribbon on the arm or hat for gentlemen, and a black ribbon and necklace for ladies, and we will discontinue the giving of gloves and scarfs at funerals.

Ninth. THAT such as are venders of goods or merchandize, will not take advantage of the scarcity of goods that may be occasioned by this association, but will sell the same at the rates we have been respectively accustomed to do for twelve months last past.—And if any vender of goods or merchandize, shall sell any such goods on higher terms, or shall in any manner, or by any device whatsoever, violate or depart from this agreement, no person ought, nor will any of us deal with any such person, or his, or her factor or agent, at any time thereafter, for any commodity whatever.

Tenth. IN case any merchant, trader, or other persons shall import any goods or merchandize after the first day of December, and before the first day of February next, the same ought forthwith at the election of the owner, to be either re-shipped or delivered up to the committee of the county, or town wherein they shall be imported, to be stored at the risque of the importer, until the non-importation agreement shall cease, or be sold under the direction of the committee aforesaid; and in the last mentioned case, the owner or owners of such goods, shall be reimbursed (out of the sales) the first cost and charges; the profit if any, to be applied towards relieving and employing such poor inhabitants of the town of Boston, as are immediate sufferers by the Boston Port-Bill; and a particular account of all goods so returned, stored, or sold, to be inserted in the public papers; and if any goods or merchandizes shall be imported after the said first day of February, the same ought forthwith to be sent back again, without breaking any of the packages thereof.

Eleventh. THAT a committee be chosen in every county, city, and town, by those who are qualified to vote for Representatives in the Legislature, whose business it shall be attentively to observe the conduct of all persons touching this association; and when it shall be made to appear to the satisfaction of a majority of any such committee, that any person within the limits of their appointment has violated this association, that such majority do forthwith cause the truth of the case to be published in the Gazette, to the end, that all such foes to the rights of British America may be publicly known, and universally contemned as the enemies of American liberty ; and thenceforth we respectively will break off all dealings with him or her.

Twelfth. THAT the committee of correspondence in the respective colonies do frequently inspect the entries of their custom-houses, and inform each other from time to time of the true state thereof, and of every other material circumstance that may occur relative to this association.

Thirteenth. THAT all manufactures of this country be sold at reasonable prices, so that no undue advantage be taken of a future scarcity of goods.

Fourteenth. AND we do further agree and resolve, that we will have no trade, commerce, dealings or intercourse whatsoever, with any colony or province, in North-America, which shall not accede to, or which shall hereafter violate this association, but will hold them as unworthy of the rights of freemen, and as inimical to the liberties of their country.

AND we do solemnly bind ourselves and our constituents, under the ties aforesaid, to adhere to this association until such parts of the several acts of parliament passed since the close of the last war, as impose or continue duties on tea, wine, molasses, syrups, paneles, coffee, sugar, pimento, indigo, foreign paper, glass, and painters colours, imported into America ; and extend the powers of the Admiralty courts beyond their ancient limits, deprive the American subject of trial by jury, authorise the Judge's certificate to indemnify the prosecutor from damages, that he might otherwise be liable to from a trial by his peers, require oppressive security from a claimant of ships or goods seized, before he shall be allowed to defend his property, are repealed.---And until that part of the A&t of the 12. G. 3. ch. 24, entitled, " An A&t for the better securing his Majesty's dock yards, magazines, ships, ammunition, and stores," by which any persons charged with committing any of the offences therein described, in America, may be tried in any shire or county within the realm, is repealed---And until the four A&ts passed in the last session of Parliament, viz. That for stopping the port and blocking up the harbour of Boston---That for altering the charter and government of the Massachusett's-Bay---And that which is entitled, " An A&t for the better administration of justice, &c."---And that " For extending the limits of Quebec, &c." are repealed. And we do recommend it to the provincial conventions, and to the committees in the respective Colonies, to establish such farther regulations as they may think proper, for carrying into execution this Association.

THE foregoing association being determined upon by the Congress, was ordered to be subscribed by the several Members thereof ; and thereupon we have hereunto set our respective names accordingly.
